

CHILI CON CARNE

Music & Words by EDENROTH ANDERS WILHELM

transcription : maya

Take some ripe and fresh tomatoes, put them in a bowl with oil,
Add the onions, strong and tasty, on the stove you let it boil.
Choose the finest meat you get from cow or pig, it doesn't matter.
Beans and jalapeno-peppers, necessary is to this.

But don't forget, don't forget the Mexican spices,
The spices, the heart of the art of the cooking.
Oh, no! don't forget, don't forget the Mexican spices,
Without them you won't get the flavor of sunshine.

Chili con carne, chili con carne,
Chili con carne, chili con carne,
A-ha, let's make!
Chili con carne, chili con carne,
Chili con carne, chili con carne,
A-ha, that's good!

Eat your chili nice and slowly to prevent your stomachache,
Crisp tortillas on your plate will sound so nicely when they break.
When your mouth gets full of fire, you might need something to drink,
One or two or three or four or seven beers will be enough

But don't forget, don't forget the Mexican spices,
The spices, the heart of the art of the cooking.
Oh, no! don't forget, don't forget the Mexican spices,
Without them you won't get the flavor of sunshine.

Chili con carne, chili con carne,
Chili con carne, chili con carne,
A-ha, a-ha!
Chili con carne, chili con carne,
Chili con carne, chili con carne,

But don't forget, don't forget the Mexican spices,
The spices, the heart of the art of the cooking.
Oh, no! don't forget, don't forget the Mexican spices,
Without them you won't get the flavor,
The flavor of Mexican sunshine.

Chili con carne, chili con carne,
Chili con carne, chili con carne,
Chili con carne, chili con carne,
A-ha, let's eat!

...Chili con carne, chili con carne,
Chili con carne, chili con carne,
Chili con carne, chili con carne,
A-ha!
